This year's Growling Productions classes were the first to develop the entire yearbook at the high school. A lot of hard work has gone into the pages that follow. Winslow High School would like to thank all of the people that participated in the production of the 2006 Bulldog Legacy.

As we spend our time walking the halls of Winslow High School, we experience so many life altering obstacles until the day we walk the field to obtain our diplomas. For many of us, it is a step that will transform our lives forever and help us grow into better people. For others, it's a way to build relationships and, well... have a good time. Through it all, we assemble memories that will last a lifetime. Some are sad, some may be violent, while others will make us smile years from now. When it is all over, the memories are the only possessions that we have left. Some will remember sticking every stunt at competition, or the slam dunk at the basketball game. Others will remember the football team winning the Homecoming game. The select few will always remember, the good times: on the Blue Ridge bus, in the band room, in Driver's Ed., and in the cafeteria.

For the rest of us, we will always smile when thinking about the people we went on our first date with, who were always trying to be involved with everything, and who tried to make a difference around the school.

So, it is said that the halls are where we build the memories, meet new people, stumble upon that first love, lose a best friend, get into trouble, laugh, cry, and sometimes see a good fight. It changes everyone in so many ways and allows all of us to develop into the people whom we will soon become when it is all over. That is why WALKING THE HALLS OF WINSLOW HIGH is something that no one will ever forget.

*Editor-in-Chief,
Angela Lea McComas*

Congratulations!

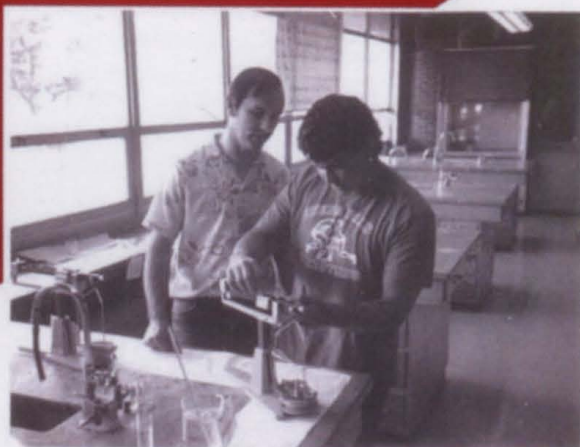

2006 Bulldog

Mr. Breeze

Mr. Breeze graduated in 1988. He did many things in high school. He was an All-American wrestler and also did track and football. He had a full ride scholarship to North Idaho College for wrestling. Later he transferred to ASU and received a Bachelors in education. He has now been teaching at WHS for 10 years. He was head wrestling coach for 4 years. In 2001 he had an undefeated year, but they were runners up at state. One of his hobbies is raising cattle.

Mr. Watson and Mr. Breeze in Chemistry class back in the day.

Legacy Dedicatees

Mr. Larsen

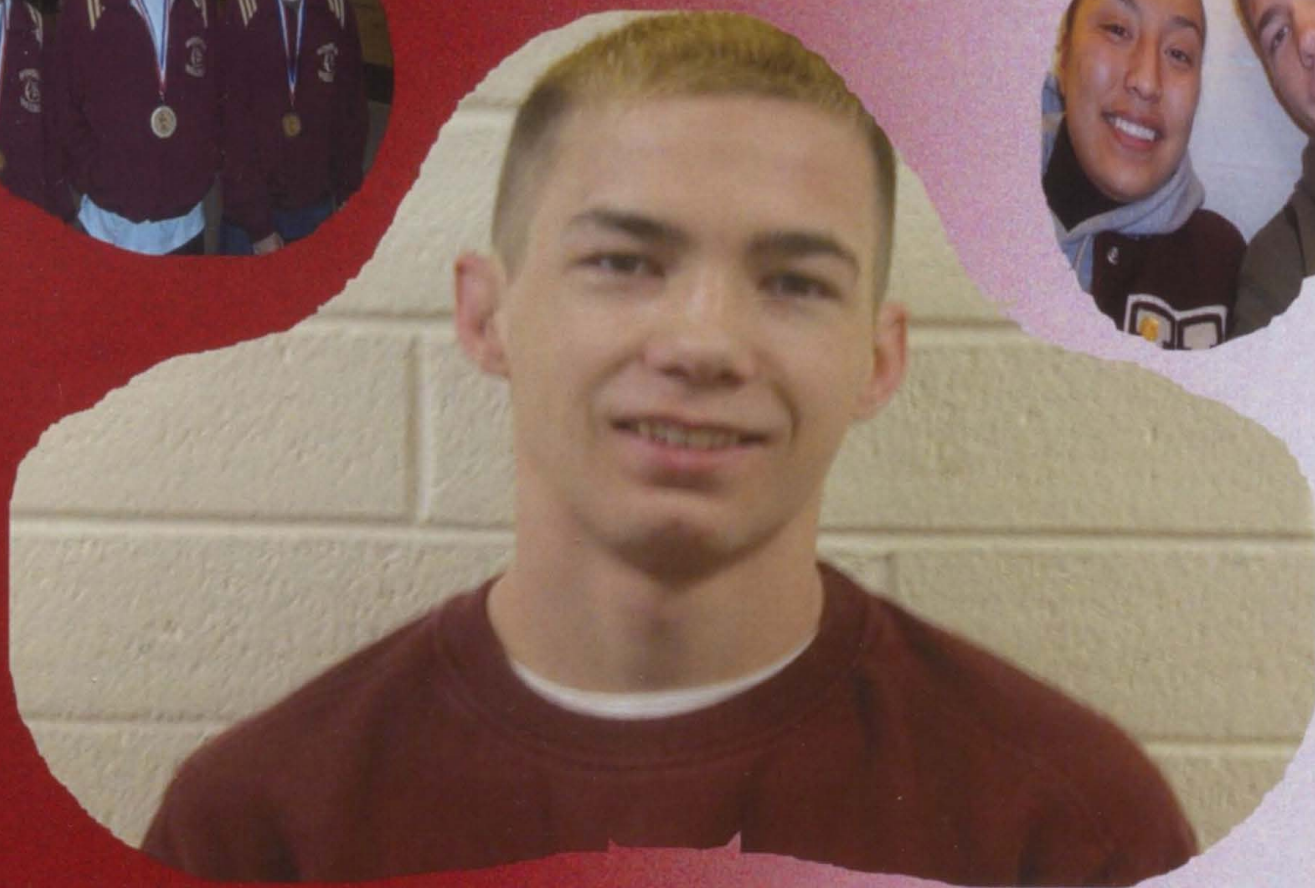

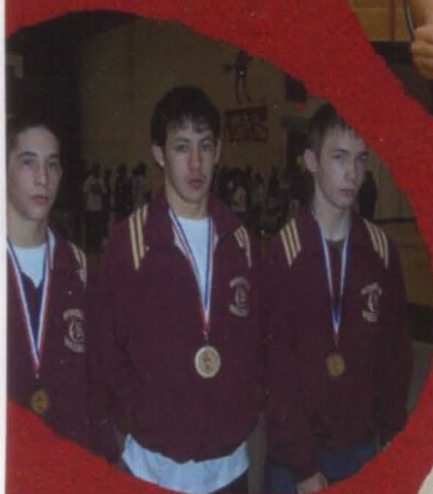

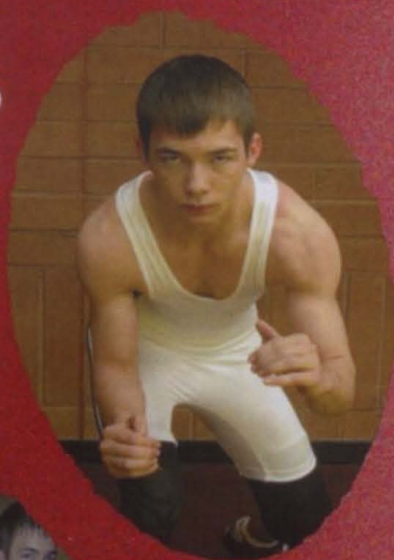

Adam Larsen is a graduate of Winslow High School. Before graduating in 1995 Mr. Larsen had a successful sports and academic career. He was named a high school All-American in football by the National Football Foundation and the Coach's Hall of Fame. He was also a State Champion wrestler. After serving a mission for his church he walked on the BYU football team. He graduated with a teaching degree in 2003 and then moved back to Winslow. In 2005 he was named the WHS head football coach and lead the team to the state championship game. Mr. Larsen has been the yearbook sponsor for 3 years. The staff of the yearbook would like to say thank you for all your hard work!

SENIOR PLANS

JOHN SEARS IS GOING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, IN SEATTLE, ON AN ROTC SCHOLARSHIP. HE SAYS HE WON'T MISS HIGH-SCHOOL BECAUSE IT ALL SUCKED.

MEGAN JOHNSON WANTS TO ATTEND EASTERN ARIZONA COLLEGE FOR THEIR THEATER PROGRAM. HER ULTIMATE GOAL IS TO PERFORM ON BROADWAY, UNLESS SHE GETS MARRIED AND HAS KIDS.

AFTER WHS...?

JACKIE IS NOT QUITE SURE WHAT SHE IS DOING YET, BUT WILL MISS HIGHSCHOOL FOOTBALL GAMES AND CHEERING AT HIGH-SCHOOL EVENTS.

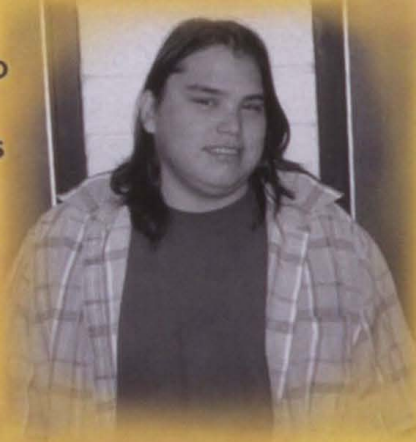

TRICIA IS GOING TO ASU, POSSIBLY TO GET INTO EDUCATION. HER MOST EMBARRASING MEMORY WAS GETTING DE-PANTSSED DURING THE POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL GAME.

CATLIN DURNING (LEFT) IS GOING TO NAU AND WANTS TO BECOME A HEART SURGEON BECAUSE SHE WOULD ENJOY TAKING PEOPLE APART AND PUTTING THEM BACK TOGETHER AGAIN

JOSH HEATH (RIGHT) WANTS TO GO TO NAU AS WELL. HE WANTS TO BECOME A BAND TEACHER, SAYS HE WILL MISS HIGH SCHOOL BAND, AND HE REALLY LIKES BAND.

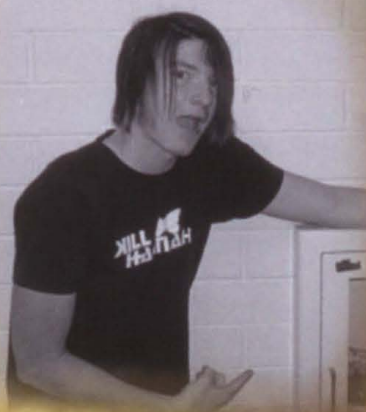

SENIORS PLAY A VERY IMPORTANT ROLL AT WHS. THE EXAMPLES THEY LEAD AND THE TRADITIONS THEY SET SURVIVE FOR LONG AFTER THEY HAVE MOVED ON TO THE NEXT PART OF THEIR LIVES. BUT THERE IS A SINGLE QUESTION EVERY SENIOR MUST ASK THEMSELVES, "WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?" WHEN THE TIME COMES TO MOVE ON FROM HIGH SCHOOL THEY MUST MAKE A CHOICE ON WHERE TO GO AND WHAT TO DO. THE NEXT PART OF YOUR LIVES IS AT HAND, SENIORS. WHAT WILL YOU CHOOSE TO DO WITH IT?

CHESTON D. IS JOINING THE MARINES AND HOPES TO CONTINUE WELDING AFTER THAT. RUNNING FOR 15+ YARDS IN THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP FOOTBALL GAME IS SOMETHING HE SAYS HE WILL NEVER FORGET.

ROBERT TIBBS WILL MISS BEING A SENIOR AND WANTS TO GET INTO COMPUTER PROGRAMING AND WEB DESIGN FOR THE MONEY. EITHER THAT OR BECOME A STRIPPER. (HA,HA)

NICK ANDERSON'S FAVORITE MEMORIES WERE WINSLOW'S FOUR VICTORIES OVER BLUE RIDGE IN FOOTBALL AND, "WATCHING THOSE LITTLE GIRLS CRY". NICK IS GOING TO MCC TO PLAY FOOTBALL, BUT REALLY WANTS TO BECOME A ZOOLOGIST BECAUSE HE LOVES ANIMALS, AND CHICKS DIG IT.

Bulldog Football

The 05 season had many surprises for the Dogs. From a new coach to a come from behind victory over Blue Ridge, the 05 team will always be remembered as good sports and great athletes. Who could forget the crowd during the homecoming game and the senior leadership during the playoffs. This year our Dogs made it to The State Championship Game. The first team to do so since Coach Larsen was a Senior (94). The Bulldogs were an underdog from the beginning but they didn't let that stop them. They won the North Division for the third consecutive time.

Nick Anderson was another one of the Dogs key players with 10 sacks on defense.

Jordan Payne, not enough could be said about he's athletic ability.

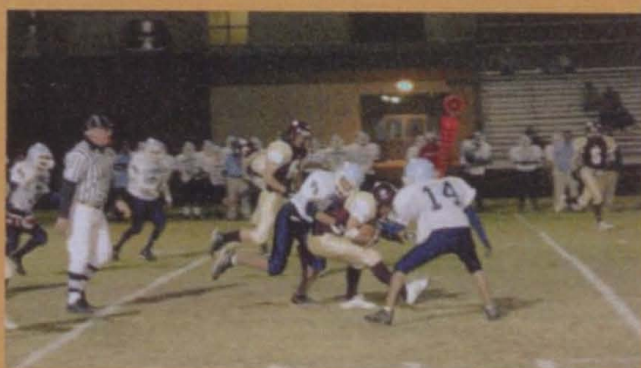

Mark Armao played a big role in the rushing game. With 945 rushing yards this season he is an extremely good athlete with alot of talent.

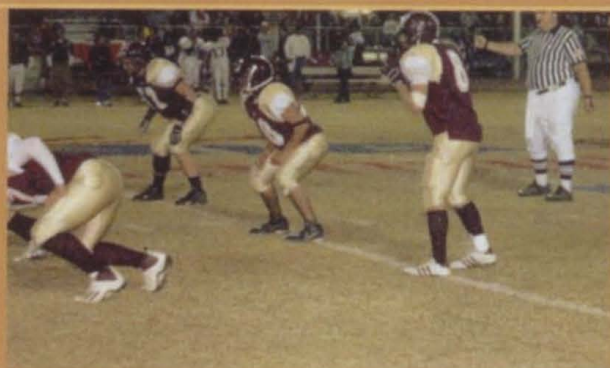

The Offensive Line earned the reputation as the fastest and biggest line in the state. They were a huge factor in the average 300 yards of offense a game, which helped them to get to the Championship Game.

Ouch!!!

The Bulldogs had one of the best defenses in the conference with 7 seniors and 4 juniors the dogs dominated as a unit.

Hangin out at practice

The JV squad did a great job this year. The Varsity and Pommies would like to congratulate all the members of the team for making it one to remember. With all the different people that we have on the squad, it's a test sometimes to get everything done but in the end we're all proud to be bulldogs. Keep up that Bulldog Spirit!

Deck The Halls

THIS IS HOW WE DO IT

Rockin

This years drumline had a very exciting time. We enjoyed making some new and original stuff to excite the crowds. At NAU band day we received the drummers award, which we were proud to get. There are six guys on the drumline every year. The six guys were (seniors) Tim, Josh, Jorden, John, (underclass men) Mikell, and Kyle. We have several younger guys that weren't quite on the drumline yet but will do well next year. This year's drumline has been one of the best that we have seen in years and we know it will just continue to get better and more enjoyable as the drumline grows in the years to come.

Native Americans

at Winslow High School

There are many Native Americans that attend Winslow High School. They have backgrounds ranging from all over the country. Everyone's culture at Winslow High School is important to the diversity and school spirit we enjoy. During Native American week we all celebrate the heritage and tradition of the Native American culture. We all should be so proud of our personal heritage and never forget those who came before us that make that heritage possible.

Navajo

The Navajo people, also known as the Dine people have played an interesting part in our history.

Their native language was used as a code against the Japanese in World War II.

The Navajo Reservation is the largest in the world, it covers four states which are Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, and Colorado.

< Smile for the camera Tirsha! It's Native American week.

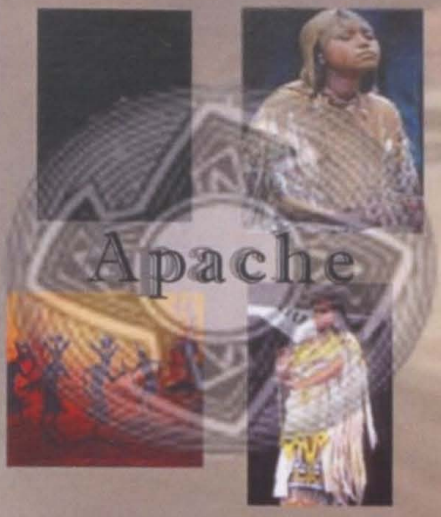

The Hopi tribe have always lived on the mesa cliffs east of Tuba City.

They are known for their colorful Katchina dolls that portray many different aspects that are sacred to them.

They are called "People of the Colorado Plateau" and were also known for their dry-farming techniques; blue eared corn was their main crop, also, watermelon, squash, and many others.

Hopi

The Apache tribe were feared in the old days of wagons and horse back. One of their great leaders was Geronamo.

The Apache tribe are recognized for their "Crown dancers", and their for the womens coming of age ceremony.

Winter

We have the band here showing there school spirit.

Seniors tug of war with the sophmores. Despite their best effort they came away with a loss.

Kyeen showing some hot moves and showing who's got the best moves around.

Joe's giving it all he's got. With his mean game face and all. I don't see how you could beat that!!

This years Winter Fest was a good one indeed.. There was alot of fun and excitement even though it didn't look much like winter around here without snow and such. We had some great battles in the tug of war competition and the juniors won easily over all their competitors. When it came down to the final competition, the class competition, the senior class won with a window shaking win over the other classes. This one will go down as another win for the class of '06.

Look at these seniors, those goof balls. That's the senior class for ya, Always goofin around and havin a good time.

Hmmmm.....Does anyone see what I see here. This pictures looking a little weird. I've always wondered about are freshman.

Look at Mark, preaching it up for the Basketball team. He's got the attention of the entire school. Lookin good boys! looking good!

fest

Look at Anthony here rolling around. If you ask me it looks like he's enjoying this too much. Maybe this isn't his first time in plastic.

This year's sophomore class pulled off an amazing victory over the senior class. Alls I can say is WOW!!!

This year's Winter Fest was the best in my four years at Winslow High School. We had a fun year and it was at a time when sports were at a all-time best. We had a great showing at the game where we pulled out a great win. We also had a lot of people show up at the dance to get their "groove" on. From what I've seen over the past few years the fun and excitement will just continue to go in the years to come and we will see much more excitement at Winslow High.

Look here. The senior class is so entertained by something...All for one person which is Sandon as you see.... he's kind of busy.

The juniors managed to beat all of the other classes this year in the tug of war. Well look at those two.... There HUGE!!!

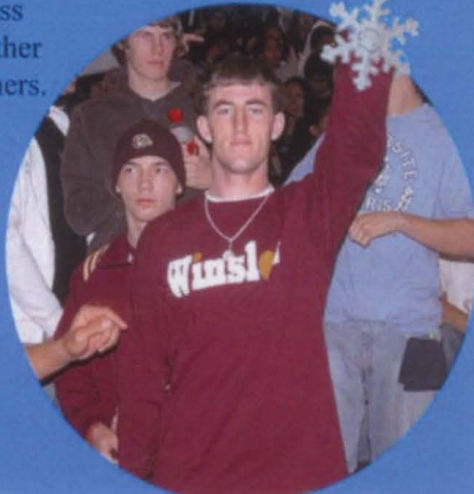

We see the freshman class here getting ready to take on the juniors in a little tug of war action. Why do they look so small?

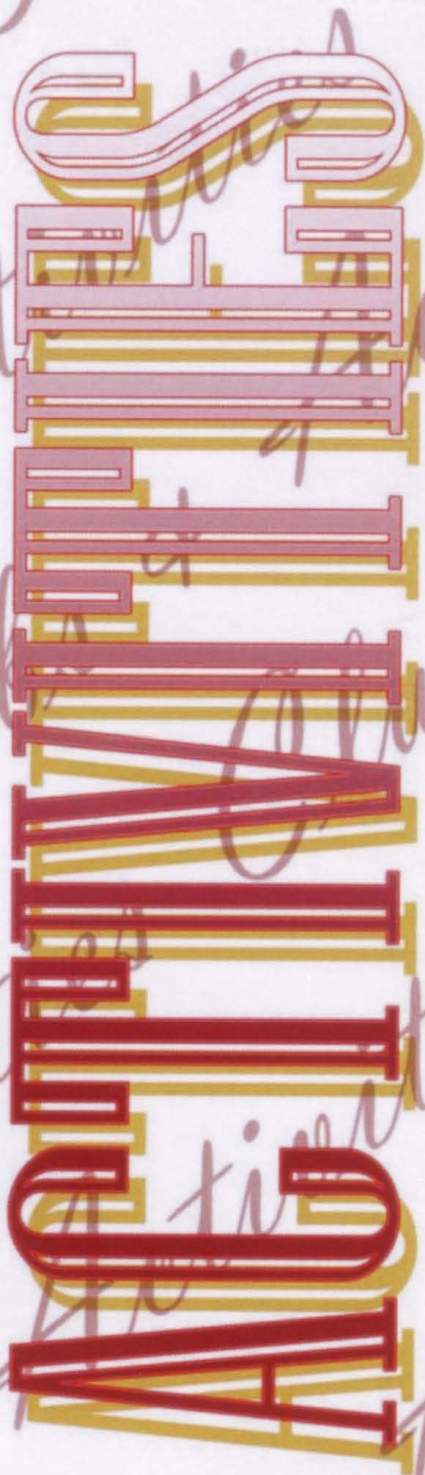

Here we see some of the band doing their thing. It looks kinda empty.... whered everyone go?

The class of '06 had a good show as the took home a class comp. with another win over the others.

The Speech and Debate team has grown and shrunk over the last few years, but the life force is still pumping. This year, there were several members: Tina Rankin, RC Brown, Caitlin Durning, Dana Knute, and Asalee Chischilly. They've traveled to many places and had a great year. The Speech and Debate tournaments are an exercise in professionalism. You get to meet new and interesting people and participate in challenging and competitive events. In speech and debate, you learn how to use your voice. In this club, one can learn how to give words life. You can speak in heart-wrenchingly sad, sidesplittingly funny or mind-numbingly strange speeches, all the while, gaining skill in speaking. And that, thorough this year and others, is just what the team has done.

Tina Rankin: Has been here through the years and still goin' strong.

Caitlin Durning: Strange tastes and strange speeches, that's her specialty.

RC Brown: An interesting guy, great devotion to the debate team, Lakers fan.

Ashlee Chischilly: Known around Speech tournaments for her unique personality.

MARCHING BAND

Look everyone, it's Blanchie!

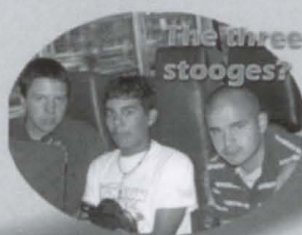

Band in action! Well, at least some...

Throughout the year, the band has done many things. During marching season, they went to the Toys For Tots parade, the Winslow Christmas parade, and also NAU Band Day; not to mention playing at the Bulldog football games! This was their second year going to the NAU Band Day, where they received a rating of Good, an Outstanding Percussion award, and the Most Loved Band Director award! At the Winslow Christmas Parade, they received the Mayor's Award! Great job, band!
